

Future proofing the Organisation: the Senior Team and its Impact a tailored programme for the executive team

- the business context; when succession is and isn't a driver of organisational performance
- the role of succession within our organisation: now and future
- preliminary analysis: immediate succession coverage and an evaluation of the leadership pipeline
- the organisational consequences and management implications
- agreeing personal responsibilities and next steps