

Career Realities: Exploiting Your Potential a one-day programme for high potential professionals and managers

- career realities in the 21st century; the context
- making big decisions: life choices and consequences
- success, survival and losing out: human nature, organisational life and the “rules of the game”
- taking stock: a reality check of career assets and liabilities
- the tactics of implementation: options and implications
- action planning and commitments